

Wakefield's Jayvee Nips George Mason

Nov. 5, 1954

A duck over left tackle by halfback Tex Bartlett gave Wakefield's JV the extra point it needed yesterday afternoon, as they defeated George Mason JV 7-6 in their final game of the 1954 season, giving coach Vic Blue a winning season with three wins and two losses.

Having played a scoreless first period, the Warriors opened up with a sustained 60 yard march in the second quarter, scoring from 15 yards out on a beautiful pass play from quarterback Butch Bauserman to right end Bob Rust. Backs Don Cox, Richie Gerbich, Jim Mayhugh, and Bauserman took turns moving the ball in position for the play which climaxed the drive and gained the six pointer. Bartlett then slashed over tackle for the point which eventually won the game.

George Mason, who lost earlier in the season to this same team by a 14-0 score, put up a bitter battle throughout, and in the third period, after taking the ball on their 35, moved five yards in two plays before Moyhaharn, who played starting left guard as well as halfback, broke through the center of the Wakefield line, and outdistanced the entire team to register his school's lone score. The attempted pass for the extra point was intercepted by linebacker Gordon Rice, and the victory was sealed for the Junior Warriors.
